

Letter from Alexander Melville Bell to Alexander Graham Bell, March 6, 1877, with transcript

Home, March 6, 77. (No envelope) My dear Al.,

I congratulate you on your success in the "Removal of Impediments". Abundant prosperity to you! You have never referred to the enclosed telegram, which arrived too late even if I could have gone. What was the testimony you required? "Make hay while the sun shines"-in lecturing. You have nuggets lying at your feet. Gather them before the telephone mine is opened.

With love to the guardian angel and yourself, Your affectionate father, Alex. Melville Bell.
